A NEW LOOK FOR NEW YORK'S LEADING BRIDAL SALON

New York, NY – April, 2009 – With three beautiful, high end salons, a rapidly growing clientele and increasing media attention Bridal Reflections required a new look for their website. The challenge presented to Webnbeyond was creating a new homepage which would accurately portray the high end image of Bridal Reflections as well as showcase their vast inventory of gowns and commitment and attention to their clients needs.

The new homepage has a clean and elegant look and neatly showcases all three of Bridal Reflections salon locations. In addition to the new crisp and chic appearance, the new homepage is more content driven and allows clients to easily find information on any of the locations as well as links to all the amazing press the salons have been getting.
