Headline: De Mar House shows peace and tranquility with new website

Baldwin, NY---May 17, 2005---Webnbeyond, a full-service design and marketing firm, has launched the newly-designed website for the De Mar House.

The De Mar House, located in Napa, California, is a premiere residence, available for rental, located just minutes from downtown Napa. The three-bedroom house offers the finest amenities and furnishings for its guests. Guests will find it very relaxing, whether they are reading a book on the white covered porch, or sipping on chardonnay in the spa tub.

The owners of the De Mar House realized that an online presence was a very important necessity to reach people interested in vacationing in Napa. Webnbeyond helped to re-create the peace and tranquility feel of the house.

The newly created website, offers website visitors a sneak-peak tour of the De Mar House, while listening to beautiful classical music in the background. The website also offers a glimpse of the surrounding Napa Valley area and the various activities that are available to vacationers.

If you are looking to find a romantic and serene getaway, check out De Mar House, or www.demarhouse.com. The website will give you a sense of a home away from home and how beautiful and memorable a Napa vacation will be.
