LONG ISLAND'S LEADING LANDSCAPE COMPANY LAUNCHES A NEW WEBSITE AND WEBNBeyond IS SELECTED

New York, NY – May, 2010 – Jeffrey's Landscaping has been one of Long Island leading landscape and hardscape companies since 1965. The company's owner, Jeffrey Beck, grew up learning all aspects of the family business founded by his father, Oscar Beck. With his fathers experience and passion for the outdoors and gardening, Jeffrey has been able to expand the company to a complete landscape construction company.

Jeffrey's Landscaping can design and install all aspects of your landscape and hardscape projects. No job is too big or small. From small residential gardens to large estates, Jeffrey's Landscaping can provide you with the design and landscape service best suited for your specific needs.

The newly created website has a clean and elegant look and showcases the beautiful work done by Jeffrey's Landscaping. It also includes a flash photo gallery featuring some of the company's projects. <http://www.jeffreyslandscaping.com>.
